

JROTC Cadet of the Month
November 2017

Abbegale McDowell

Cadet PFC Abbegale McDowell is being recognized as the Cadet of the Month for November 2017 by the JROTC department. Being recognized as Cadet of the Month means that the cadet has shown knowledge of the cadet rank structure, chain of command, and has general JROTC knowledge. Abbegale’s instructor says that “she deserves this honor because she has set the example for her peers. She is already a Private First Class; not many LET 1s have that. She has shown great knowledge of the chain of command and is a great marcher.” Cadet McDowell is the daughter of William McDowell and the granddaughter of Joyce McDowell.

Mission accomplished! Good job, Abbegale!
