

Student OF THE MONTH

Lexie Partain & Stone Crook

Academic Students of the Month
Modern Language Dept.
January 2018

Lexie Partain & Stone Crook are being recognized as the Academic Students of the Month for January 2018 by the Modern Language Department.

Lexie is being recognized because her teacher says “Lexie displays a high level of dedication to learning a new language and takes the initiative to learn Spanish beyond the classroom. She is always prepared for class and is very helpful to other students. Lexie is a joy to teach and I am looking forward to watching her succeed.” She is the daughter of Dena and Kerry Partain.

Stone is being recognized because his teacher says “I am nominating Stone for his outstanding achievement in Russian Language. I have been impressed by his diligence and work ethic. Stone is very enthusiastic learner and a role model for his peers.” He is the son of Mark and Deana Crook.

Great job! Congratulations, Lexie & Stone!
