

ECCHS Student of the Month

*Car'lexia Ardister is being recognized as the Academic Student of the month for January by the English/Language Arts Department. Her teacher Mrs. Hope Vaughn says, "Car'lexia is an exceptional English student. Not only does she maintain high academic standards for herself, but she is instrumental in motivating other students in the class. She asks great questions, is a leader in discussions, and does not settle for 'just good enough'. She is a pleasure to teach." Car'lexia is the daughter of Tabitha Burton and Carlos Ardister.

*Hannah Brogdon is being recognized as the Academic Student of the month for January by the Fine Arts Department. Her teacher, Ansley McNeese says, "Hannah always does everything to the absolute best of her ability. She is the type of student who loves to learn, which makes her the best to teach! I look forward to seeing her continue to grow in Chorus." Hannah is the daughter of Melissa Maxwell and Franklin Brogdon.

* Marion Rambert is being recognized as the Academic Student of the Month for January by the Math Department. His teacher, Mr. Luke Hall says, "Marion is an excellent worker and always strives to do his very best in everything. He has been a joy to teach in both 9th and 10th grade. Marion has a bright future ahead of him." Marion is the son of Tabitha and Jaamal Rambert.

*Maurissa Heard is being recognized as the Academic Student of the Month for January by the Science Department. Her teacher, Ms. Vickie Cutts says, "Maurissa participates actively in class discussion, she works very hard and has maintained a 100% in Honors Biology. She has an excellent work ethic and seems to be interested in the class subject." Maurissa is the daughter of Kisha Heard.

*Ethan Carter is being recognized as the Academic Student of the Month for January by the Social Studies Department. Ethan's teacher, Mr. Greg Jarvis says, "Ethan has shown a strong work ethic and is always willing to participate in class discussions. I have been impressed with his diligence and comments in class." Ethan is the son of Santez Carter and Katrina Murray.

*CPT. Jennifer Flores is being recognized as the JROTC Cadet of the Month for January by the ROTC Department. SFC Ulrich said, "Cadet Jennifer Flores, honored as January Cadet of the Month, excelled in leadership and academics. Selected as Elbert County's HOBY Ambassador for 2024, she also received the JROTC Spurs for achieving the highest grade among level 2 cadets this semester. Congratulations to Cadet Jennifer Flores on these well-deserved honors!" Jennifer is the daughter of Madeline and Norberto Flores.

*Jermaine Sims is being recognized by Coach Shannon Jarvis as the PE Student of the month for January. Coach Jarvis says, "Jermaine is an extremely hard worker who brings the same energy and passion into the weight room every day. He is a positive leader who encourages his peers and leads by the example he sets daily." Jermaine is the son of Jermaine and Keondra Sims.

*Travis Allen Jr. is being recognized as the Agriculture Career Pathways Student of the month for January by the CTAE department. TJ's teacher, Mrs. Jordan Paul says, "TJ is serving as the agriculture student intern this semester. He is an intelligent, responsible, self-motivated, and hardworking young man. He has a passion for pursuing agricultural bio-engineering, biological sciences, and plant sciences. He serves as the Vice President for the Elbert High FFA Chapter." TJ is the grandson of Pamela Allen.